Anna and I looked at another dying mall in Norfolk. I think we all understand the different retail and service retail options that we can make available and restaurant offerings are pretty universal. Here are my thoughts on other uses to make it a Fishermans village wework we live we play we learn.

Pickle ball
Jungle gym
Daycare
Schools
Adult classes
Wood metal drywall construction vocational training
Marine repair training
Marine schools
Aviation training
Aviation refurbishment
Coworker Offices call
Musical training, and retail
Cooking school

Hopefully that gives you the idea please brainstorm and add whatever else would be good to throw in the mix

I am envisioning, turning the malls in to private clubs that are Christian-based and do not allow any of the woke bullshit

Membership would be $77 a year or seven dollars a month

I would like to utilize a model where 10% was donated to a foundation and 10% of sales was paid toward rent and 10% went to the owners and workers. They are by keeping the costs of everything extremely low and affordable compared to Watts available from competitors.

I believe that through a buying entity we could secure product through China or other places, very inexpensively

Lots to digest here, but feel free to give me your feedback

List of malls that have been transferred to the lenders special servicing department, which typically happens when there is a loan default

Store idea: interactive art splatter /paint guns, paint balloons etc. painting, classes etc.
(with the top golf concept but instead of golf you have canvases on a carpet display type of machine so it can rotate and you can paint, splatter & shoot onto canvases while you eat drink etc

Lol sorry if that's confusing I can't think of words right now.
